Shenyang International School exists to provide a United States college preparatory education, which includes educational learning opportunities integrating faith and learning, for students in Junior Kindergarten to grade 12 who are children of expatriate parents living in Shenyang.

2011-2012 School Calendar

The first semester begins August 10th and ends Dec.23rd. The second semester begins Jan.30th and ends June 6th. Each day begins at 8:30am ending at 3:30pm. Elementary students have 5hrs 30mins of instruction each day and secondary students have 6hrs 20mins of instruction each day. Students spend 178 days in school.

Extra-curricular Activities

Shenyang International School has an active secondary school student government. SYIS offers students music, fine arts, athletics and Chinese culture; offering secondary students girls' and boys' basketball and volleyball, as well as boys soccer. Secondary students can also participate in choir, student council and a China studies tour each fall.
